GREAT VOTING CONTEST

Elegant Obermeyer & Sons Piano and Other Valuable Prizes to be Awarded to the Successful Candidates.

The Journal and Perrysburg Merchants Give Prizes.

Read the Announcement and Particulars on Eighth Page of This Issue, and Get in the Game.

The Journal this week inaugurates the greatest voting contest ever held in this section of the state and one which we believe will arouse a good deal of interest.

This contest will extend over a period of 90 days, and at the close of the contestsome lady in Perrysburg or vicinity will be the proud possessor of a handsome $400 piano.

On page eight of this issue will be found a full explanation of the contest and the rules which will govern it, and a list of beautiful and useful auxiliary prizes which will be given by the progressive merchants of the town. There are a great many prizes besides the piano, any one of which will be well worth winning, and every contestant who gets out and makes any kind of a hustle will be sure of winning a handsome prize even if she does not win the piano.

This contest is put on under the auspices of the Publisher's Music Co. of Chicago, who will have charge of the arrangements. This company makes a business of conducting these popular voting contests and at present has a number of them under way in this and other states.

Some popular lady will have a beautiful piano as a result of this contest and a number of others will have beautiful prizes of various kinds.

Read the rules elsewhere in this issue, inspect the offerings of the merchants and learn how you may secure votes for yourselves or friend.

Use the 25-vote coupon in this issue and cast it for some one, as it may be the starter of a winner. Fill out the nominating blank and send it or hand it in to The Journal office, as this may be the means of helping some deserving lady to win a handsome piano or some of the other valuable prizes enumerated in this list.

This contest is without doubt, the biggest business getting enterprise that has ever been presented to the people of Perrysburg and vicinity.

While the Journal enjoys a good business, nevertheless we are always reaching out after more and in our present method of helping others, we hope to return to help ourselves. We hope to increase our subscription list at a rapid rate and thereby benefit the advertiser.

Remember that a number of our leading merchants are interested in this contest and give 25-vote coupons with every dollar cash purchase. Also those who do not fully understand the rules and regulations of this contest can call on or write to this office and we will be pleased to go over the proposition with them.

Remember to have your friends trade with the merchants who are giving the coupons. They are reliable tradespeople as follows:

C. P. Champney, Pharmacist.
E. E. Clark, Jeweler.
J. J. Amon, Hardware.
F. C. Eberly, Shoes.

SOME OBSERVATIONS

Concerning Nothing Very Serious But Worthy of Thought.

Everybody in this locality knows Walter Brown, the Politician, but how many know Walter Brown, the Man? Those who were present when the children of the Miami Home inaugurated their new swimming pool on the Fourth of July saw Walter Brown the man, whose love for unfortunate humanity, the helpless children whose natural protectors were either unable or unwilling to care for them, prompted him to plan and work for the construction of the pool which will forever be a source of pleasure to the Home children. Mingling with that crowd of kiddies for whose happiness he had done so much, Mr. Brown received full measure of reward for his effort in their happy shouts and smiles of gladness. Politics and business were forgotten and Walter Brown was a kid again.

A personal letter from John C. Himmelman, of Washington, D. C., states that he is delighted to know that Perrysburg is to have a Home Coming and that he will journey here from the Capitol to join with the old home folks in celebration in the "most beautiful town on earth." John knows the beauty of the water lilies that grow over by "Big Island."

"This certainly is a magnificent street," said Mr. T. F. Conly of Bowling Green to the Journal, as he was looking at the beautifully paved Louisiana avenue in Perrysburg, "and what an ideal place for a carnival or Home Coming, such as you will have. Oh, we'll all come over. We can't miss it."

CURED OF INDIGESTION.

Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes. "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.

DEDICATE THEIR POOL

One Hundred and Seventy Kiddies Have a Glorious Time.

At 10 o'clock Fourth of July morning Mr. Walter Brown one of the Trustees of the Miami Children's Home fired the signal for 170 happy children to plunge into the new swimming pool at the Miami Home.

Superintendent Ed. Brown, who is the adopted daddy of the whole bunch of children had his hands full restraining the youngsters from tumbling into the water before time, but when the gun was fired that pool became the scene of a shouting, squirming, wriggling aggregation of boys and girls whose whole thought was that of having a good time, and they certainly had it.

The pool is constructed on the hillside and is so arranged that it will accommodate all the children at one time and is one of the greatest features of enjoyment that could be given them.

Superintendent and Mrs. Brown and their faithful assistants in the Home were everywhere in attendance upon the children and the "swimming party" was a grand celebration of the Fourth for the children.

THE HAND OF WELCOME

Extended to Representation of Three Valley Village Associations.

Last Wednesday evening was the date set for the Perrysburg Civic association's reception of delegations from the Maumee, Waterville and Rossford associations and the meeting was one of the most interesting and pleasing of its character ever held in this most beautiful and historic valley.

The association's assembly hall was filled with representative men of the highest type of citizenship and good fellowship and good cheer prevailed during the entire evening.

The meeting was opened by President Robert C. Pew, who extended a cordial welcome to the visitors and briefly outlined the object of the association and stated that one of the reasons for the reception was that of forming a closer tie with our neighbors with the hope that we might unite in the general upbuilding of the villages and to enhance the welfare of all residents of the entire valley. His remarks were well received and seemed to strike a responsive chord in the minds and hearts of his hearers.

He then called Mr. M. D. Merrick, President of the Rossford association, who spoke at length and very interestingly, stating that he believed a federation of the associations would be greatly to the advantage of the people of the entire valley and on behalf of the Rossford delegation expressed the desire to unite with the other associations in doing everything possible to make the beautiful valley still more beautiful, and still more desirable as an abiding place for the highest class of residents.

Mr. Alford, President of the Maumee association, was introduced, who briefly, and in a very pleasing manner, acknowledged the pleasure of the Maumee delegates in accepting the invitation to be present. He made a hit by his reference to Toledo's protest against the use of the Maumee river by the up-river towns, when he said "Toledo would do better if she appealed to the east wind to save their water supply from pollution."

President Farnsworth of the Waterville association, who headed the largest representation present, in proportion to membership, convinced the meeting that Waterville was neither dead nor sleeping.

Mr. Baldwin of Maumee spoke of his appreciation of a home on the banks of the Maumee, and said that Perrysburg is the first object that he gazes upon when he looks out of his window in the morning, and made the Perrysburg fellows swell with pride at the delicate compliment.

Rev. Fr. Schoendorf was introduced and made an impressive and pleasing speech. He rejoiced that it was possible for men to unite in the great work of promoting the general welfare of the community, without regard to their religious or political affiliation, and was pleased to offer his assistance in every manner possible.
